Carlisle Indians Shut Out the Blue and Gray.

CROWD PRESENT

ON CHEVY CHASE, COLUMBIA AND WASHINGTON LINKS.

Travis Best at Lakewood—Erne Badly Whipped by Britt-Standing of Foot Ball Teams.

The score, Carlisle Indians, 21; George town, 0; tells the story of the Blue and Gray's defeat yesterday afternoon on the foot ball field of the local university. The first half of the game was undeniably favorable to Georgetown, and three times the local players had fine opportunities to score, but two funmbles at critical times and a failure to advance the ball when it was on the Carlisle one-yard line destroyed their chances. After the first kick off by the Indians the ball was never in Georgetown's territory during the first half, and when time was called the supporters of the Blue and Gray had high hopes of winning out against the red men. This hope was ruthlessly destroyed at the beginning of the second half, when the dusky warriors jumped into the game with a war whoop that indicated determination to win, as they tore through the line and around the ends of the local university team almost at will, scoring four touchdowns and kicking one goal.

Georgetown showed up in fine form in the first half; the team work was superior to that shown by the boys at any time this Ray used for examination, diagnosis and treatment. If you need HELP or ADVICE consult us free. Dally from 10 a.m. to 12; 2 p.m. to 6. Tuesday and Saturday till 8 p.m.

the fierce assaults of their opponents.

Capt. Reilly, Hart and Abbatichio made some spectacular runs during the game, and played good defensive. Givens was also very much in the game, as usual, and, in fact, all the members of the team did their best to advance the ball and to prevent the visitors from scoring.

Parker was a tower of strength for the Indians, making three of the four touch-downs. Whether he had interference or not seemed to make little difference with him, and he carried the ball a large share of the time. Little Johnson, the star quarter back of the Indians, made some plendid long runs and Charles plunged through the line for substantial gains. The defensive work of Exendine, at right tackle, was a feature

The Only Eskimo Foot Ball Player. The work of Exendine, at right tackle, was a feature of the game. Exendine is a full-blood Eskimo, the only one of that race who has ever played foot ball, and he is considered one of the particular stars of the Indian team. His tackling yesterday was as effective as the hug of a polar bear of his native region, while his movements were swifter by far. Exendine has an unusual faculty of getting his hands on the man with the ball, and did some pretty work, both in offense and defense, for his team.

Carlisle had many supporters on the field and the crowd was the most enthusiastic that has been seen on the Georgetown field this year. It was a fine exhibition of foot bail, notwithstanding the large score of the winning team, and the devotees of the sport fet that they had gotten their money's worth, although the score went against the

PENN DOWNS CORNELL.

22,000 People See the Quakers Triumph Over the New Yorkers.

The University of Pennsylvania foot ball eleven yesterday, at Philadelphia, defeated the Cornell team by the score of 12 to 11. The Ithacans kicked a goal from placement and scored a touchdown, from which a goal resulted in the first half, while Pennsylvania scored two touchdowns and kicked two goals in the second half.

Never has a more intensely exciting and uncertain contest been witnessed on Franklin Field. Until the final blast of the referee's whistle announced the cessation of hostilities there was a painful uncertainty in the hearts of the Pennsylvania supportin the hearts of the Pennsylvania supporters. Cornell had thrice carried the ball dangerously near Penn's goal and once carried it over. Another touchdown or an opportunity for a second goal from placement portunity for a second goal from placement would probably mean defeat for the local eleven. But as the time drew near the close of the contest Pennsylvania's play became more and more fierce, while that of Cornell grew correspondingly weaker, and the game ended with the ball in Cornell's possession on her 25-vard line ssion on her 25-yard line

The club house was crowded all day with guests, but the gallery was small, the spectators confining themselves to a rush for the last hole to see the finish of a match and then back to the club house to warm up until the next pair was seen coming up the hill for the 18 green.

Four handsome prizes were contested for, the first on the "bogey" handicap being presented by Mr. Eugene Carusi, and the other three by Edward Vogt, who is interested in the sport.

No remarkable scores were turned in on account of the course being somewhat sog-gy and rough on account of the late rains, but good, steady play was the rule. The leading players of the club were shut out of the prizes through liberal handicapping.

Charles B. Macdonald, all former golf champions of the United States, gave a national championship tone yesterday to the open tournament of the Lakewood, N. J., Golf Club. of the day, 77 strokes, the best that has ever been made in the opening round of a Lakewood fall tournament. Douglas and Macdonald tied for second honors at 84 strokes. There was a quadruple tie at 80 in the first set for the last three places. Travis last year made the amateur record for the course at 75 strokes, but he scored that low figure in one of the match play rounds. There was little difference between the play of the three former champions on the first nine holes, Travis and Macdonald both doing 41, while Douglas did 42. C. C. Mason of the Crescent Athletic Club and C. L. Tappin of Westbrook each made 82. On the last nine holes Travis struck a winning pace, fimshing in 36. Seven of the holes were made in four each, while one was a three and the other five. The only other man to make a nine-hole half under 40 was J. B. Coles Toppan of Nassau county, who did the home holes in 39 strokes.

The field was one of the largest that has ever taken part in a Lakewood Thanksgiving event. About ninety golfers started, and eighty-six sturned in cards. There were several ties in the different cup sets, and these will be played off, when the draw will be made for the match play rounds. Golden Rule showed in front in the first few strides, and turned into the stretch two lengths in the lead. The effort told in the run home, and W J. Deboe wore the Golden Garter gelding down, winning by half a length. The race was worth $2,050 to the winner. Cambrian and McChesney were the only winning favorites.

DECLARED A DRAW.

Sparring Bout Between Kid Sullivan and Joe Bernstein.

A large party of sports, including many of the men attending the races at Benning, went out to a road house in the Virginla suburbs last night to see a sparring bout between kid Sullivan, the local bantam-weight champion, and Joe Berstein, the New York crack, who has met the best McGovern. It was a fast, scientific bout, but lasted only eight rounds, which was not sufficient to determine which was the better man in a fight to a finish. Bernstein was the cleverer and showed better ring generalship, but the local champion was strong and tough, and was ready to mix it up at all stages. Bernstein confined his attack to the head and stein confined his attack to the head and cut Sullivan's face badly with left-hand jabs, while Sullivan played principally for the body and landed a number of stiff punches. Neither man was much hurt, however, and both could have continued the battle much longer. Mr. O'Hara of Baltimore, who acted as referee, decided the contest a draw.

There were several interesting preliminary bouts, the best being that between Fletcher Wright and Young Sallor, which resulted in the latter being knocked out in the tenth round. Sailor put up a good, game fight and punished Wright severely, but finally succumbed to the superior skill and endurance of his antagonist. The "St. Mary's County Bully," a Baltimore pugilist of some local fame, had no trouble in beating a tall, lank Georgetown negro, whose name was Henry Johnson of New York stopped Young Nash of this city in five hard punish-by Jimmie Britt. Jimmie Britt, who leaped into the championship of the light-weight class last night at San Francisco by whipping Erne in seven rounds got $4,725 as his share of the purse, Erne drawing down $3,150. Britt also backed himself heavily, as did all his friends, and their clean-up was large. Erne admitted that he was tremendously surprised by the way Britt forced the fighting in the first round and at his cleverness in evading punishment. Not the slightest scratch or mark could be detected on Britt.

"Erne is a great fighter," said Britt, "and is thoroughly game. I found him a decidedly hard proposition, and he took a great deal of punishment before he weakened. I will try now to get an engagement with Corbett, as I feel confident that I can give him a good time. I intend to establish my reputation as a 130-pound fighter." Erne's face was terribly cut and swollen so much that his friends reported they could scarcely recognize him. His cheeks were puffed and distorted and his eyes were discolored and almost closed.

"He beat me fairly," said Erne, "and de-served to win. He is a doughty fighter, and will make a great name for himself before long. His punishment is severe and delivered quickly. My eyes were swollen so badly I could scarcely see, and in that was I unable to do any effective work toward the end of the fight."

McGovern Will Referee.

A wrestling match which promises considerable sport will take place at the Empire Theater tonight between Bernhard Hayes and Warren Beale, both of this city. It will be to a finish, best two out of three fails, for a purse and a side bet. Terry McGovern, the champion featherweight of the world, will act as referee. No extra charge of admission will be made.
